In 1888, Emily Wells Foster formed the nation’s first nursery school for blind children in her home in Hartford. Through Foster’s efforts the organization grew and forever changed the lives of hundreds of blind Americans and their families. In 1893, it would become known as the Connecticut Institute for the Blind, and today we are Oak Hill.

Oak Hill is the largest nonprofit private provider of services for people with disabilities in the state of Connecticut. Oak Hill employs over 1,400 professionals who work at our 124 program sites located in 73 towns throughout Connecticut.

Mission: Oak Hill sets the standard, partnering with people with disabilities, to provide services and solutions promoting independence, education, health and dignity.

Vision: Oak Hill’s vision is that people with disabilities will be able to achieve their full potential, engage in their community and meaningful relationships, and fulfill their physical, intellectual, emotional, economic, social, and spiritual needs.
